FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Section 324.014

In response to similar legislation (HCS for HB 265), officials from the Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions, and Professional Registration stated the department's current appropriations are anticipated to cover any costs associated with this proposal. However, should unexpected expenses occur, additional appropriations may be necessary.

Sections 332.425, 338.010 - 338.240

In response to similar legislation (HCS SCS SB 29), officials from the Office of State Courts Administrator, Department of Mental Health, Department of Corrections, Department of Public Safety - Missouri State Highway Patrol, Missouri Consolidated Health Care Plan and Office of State Public Defender assumed the proposal would have no fiscal impact on their agencies.

Sections 334.041 - 333.171 and 436.405 - 436.456

In response to similar legislation (SCS for SB 340), officials from the Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions, and Professional Registration assumed the proposal would have no fiscal impact on their agency.

Section 335.099

Oversight assumes the provisions of this section will have no fiscal impact. The provisions provide that a licensed practical nurse who meets certain qualifications will be qualified to teach the insulin administration course, perform diabetic nail care and monthly onsite reviews of basic personal care recipients as required by the Department of Social Services, and be qualified to perform dietary oversight as required by the Department of Health and Senior Services. Nothing in the section requires licensed practical nurses to perform these duties.

Sections 338.315 and 338.330

In response to similar legislation (HB 496), officials from the Department of Health and Senior Services and Department of Insurance, Financial Institutions, and Professional Registration assumed the proposal would have no fiscal impact on their agencies.
